THREE DIE IN U.S.S. NEW MEXICO FIRE

33 INJURED IN PUTTING OUT BLAZE ON SHIP

William N. Savage, Engineer, Dies Like Hero While at Telephone

DYNAMO ROOM AFLAME FROM UNKNOWN CAUSE

Officers and Men Overcome By Fumes Although They Wore Gas Masks

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—The U. S. S. New Mexico will sail for Port Angeles, Wash., late today on schedule despite the fire which damaged the dynamo compartment. The bodies of three men will be taken to Mare Island and sent from there to relatives. Investigation into the fire is being conducted today along two angles. First Admiral Rodman wishes to know whether faulty gas masks were supplied to fire fighters or whether the water which probably caused the death or three found drowned could safely have been withheld.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Departure of the U. S. S. New Mexico, flagship of the Pacific fleet, for northern waters today, may be delayed as the result of a fire in one of its compartments in which three men lost their lives and many others were injured.

The men were either electrocuted or drowned. The New Mexico was to have left at 6 o'clock this afternoon with six destroyers for Port Angeles, Wash., point of rendezvous for the fleet.

Eight officers and 25 men of the crew, it is reported, were overcome by fumes. All wore gas masks.

The dead:

William M. Savage, second class engineman.

W. Hilario, mess attendant, third class.

C. Dizon, mess attendant, third class.

The injured included:

Lieutenant Commander P. L. Carroll, Lieutenant Commander G. J. McMillin, Lieutenant C. G. Halpine, Lieutenant F. J. Hanafee, Lieutenant E. B. Browne, Lieutenant G. H. Mills, Ensign R. W. Abbott and Ensign C. T. Wooten, and a score of men.

The fire started in the dynamo room from some unknown cause. The compartments were flooded to stop its progress.

Rodman on Shore

Admiral Rodman, commanding the fleet, was on shore. He said he would not issue a statement until he had made a careful examination.

Savage is reported to have died like a hero. He is said to have kept in telephone communication with officers while the waters crept about him, informing them of its progress, until he fell from the telephone with a gasp.

The officer of the deck, who was on duty during the fire, said it started presumably from spontaneous combustion. He told of Savage's heroic action.

"An air duct in the bulkhead of the dynamo room," he said, "permitted flames and poisonous fumes to enter the ice machine room, where Savage, Hilario and Dizon were on watch.

The compartments filled with fumes

Great Welcome Given Pershing

New Commission Received from Secretary Baker who Lauds General in Address

By W. R. HARGRAVES
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

HOBOKEN, N. J., Sept. 8.—General Pershing stepped foot on American soil here at 9:20 a. m. today after an absence of more than two and a half years—a period in which history was made and empires overthrown and in which he played a leading role. As the big transport Leviathan warped into the dock the direction of whistles and cheering, which had greeted him all the way through the lower and upper bay was increased a hundredfold. "Black Jack," erect and very soldierly, stood on the bridge. As the pandemonium broke out he waved his cap and then his handkerchief. A band on the pier played "The Star Spangled Banner" and he came smartly to salute.

Other officers, on the transport and ashore, both army and naval, also stood at attention while the huge crowds bared their heads. A sudden hush spread over the masses and continued until the national anthem was finished.

When the strains died away over the North River the cheering broke out afresh. From then on there was an intermittent roar of cheers and screeching of whistles until the general left for the battery shortly after 10 o'clock, ceasing only when he and the welcoming officials exchanged greetings on the pier.

As Pershing strode down the gangplank the band played "to The General." After shaking hands with Secretary Baker, the general kissed his two sisters. He was then escorted to a raised dais on the pier.

Secretary Baker, presenting Pershing with the certificate of his new commission as a full general, said:

"About two and a half years ago, by the president's direction, I had the honor of designating you to lead the armies of the United States in France. Today you return, your mission accomplished, with victory written on the banners of the greatest army the nation has ever had and with the priceless foundations of liberty and freedom saved for us and for the world as the result of our participation in the war.

"The great victories are now won. The magnificent army has returned and the soldiers who once marched through the thickets of the Argonne are citizens again, filled with high memories of great deeds and carrying into their lives the inspiration

1000 Los Angeles Renters Will Combat Profiteering

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 8.—A definite program endorsed by about 1000 Los Angeles renters, to combat alleged "rent profiteering" was in process of completion today.

The general outline was worked out at a mass meeting here yesterday when several hundred persons met to organize a "tenants union."

The program includes:

Penalizing of profiteering through state or federal enactment.

Relief for victims of such profiteering through state or federal action.

A request to the city council for the passage of an ordinance licensing landlords and regulating rents.

Other measures considered included a petition to Governor Stephens advocating that the state immigration and housing commission build homes in various cities and sell them to private parties at cost much after the state land colonization plan.

As an immediate means of combating high rents speakers advocated that when rents are raised tenants take the matter into court and force eviction proceedings.

"Just imagine the constabulary of Los Angeles trying to evict 20,000 people," exclaimed one speaker. "Why when I look into the faces of some of these women here today I wouldn't want the job of evicting one of them."

Tractor Spikes Puncture Skull, Kill Fullerton Man

His head punctured by spikes on the wheel of a tractor, Charles Henry Thayer was instantly killed in his own yard Saturday evening by the farm implement, when it knocked him to the ground and run over him He was 58 years of age and owned a ranch between Fullerton and Anaheim. Coroner Brown made an investigation of the accident the same evening. No inquest was held.

Jesse Thayer, son, had been operating the tractor in the orchard and about 6 o'clock drove into the yard to make a change in the farm implement being dragged by the tractor. The engine was stopped. Later, when he attempted to start the motor, it did not "kick off" as it should. With the engine missing fire and running slowly, the young man stepped from in front of the tractor to the side to move the throttle to give a little more gas.

The father was standing in front, and when the engine speeded up the gears in some way became enmeshed and the big machine moved forward. It struck the father and knocked him down, the spikes crashing through his skull and killing him instantly. The body was taken to Backs & Terry Undertaking Parlors at Anaheim.

LIEUT. GEN. LIGGETT DEPARTS TO BORDER

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 8.—Lieut.-Gen. Hunter Liggett, commander of the western army department, left Los Angeles for San Diego today to start an inspection of the Mexican border as far east as Yuma.

General Liggett denied that there is any special significance attached to his trip.

"It is my first opportunity of inspecting the posts in the western department," he said, "and naturally I would start with the Mexican border."

General Liggett is traveling by auto —the same auto he used when he drove into Coblenz as the commander of the victorious Third Army.

FRIENDS DENY KNOWING ABOUT MOROSCO SUIT

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 8.—Friends of Oliver Morosco Mitchel, better known as Oliver Morosco, theatrical magnate, today denied any knowledge regarding the charges brought by Mrs. Mitchel in suing her noted husband for separate maintenance.

Mrs. Mitchell alleges Morosco was intimate with Selma Paley, prominent Los Angeles society woman, and claims in her complaint that he is now en route from New York to Los Angeles to gain her consent to a divorce in order that he may marry Miss Paley.

JOHNSON AND BORAH SOON TO TRAIL WILSON

Senators Make Final Plans For Carrying Arguments To the Country

By FRED S. FERGUSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—President Wilson is arguing before the country on the basis of what he sought to attain in the Versailles peace treaty—not what he got—is the reply Republican opponents of the treaty are preparing to make.

Senators Johnson, Borah and McCormick were making final plans today for their trip upon which they will carry their arguments "to the country." Johnson is preparing to answer every point made by the president on his tour. Responding to the vein of altriusm brought out by Wilson in his recent speeches, Johnson today declared:

"I deny that he is more altruistic than I am. But I will not bury my American ideals under the imperialism of Europe and Asia. I would leave them free to be exercised in their best time. The president's ideals were abandoned, beaten at the peace conference. Every ideal utterance he made was utterly whipped and eliminated by the imperialistic aims of those who wrote the treaty."

Says President Right

Johnson declared the president was entirely right when he said the covenant was greater than the government.

"And the question our people want to decide," he continued, "is whether they want to substitute this supergovernment of a league of nations for our republic."

The senator said he considered that giving Great Britain six votes in the league assembly to one for the United States was a challenge to "our self respect and patriotism." Disposition of this question would be a real test of Americanism, he declared.

Both Borah and Johnson will maintain that the presence in Russia of several thousand American soldiers is an example of what may be expected under the league of nations. They will point out that this is an entirely "undeclared, undisclosed war," and demand by what authority American lives are being sacrificed. They will attack the principle of a president setting such a precedent as arbitrarily sending an armed force into foreign territory because of a strictly international situation.

Would Make Bolsheviks

"What will make Bolsheviks any quicker?" asked Senator Johnson, "than such a policy of sacrificing American lives in an undisclosed, undeclared war?"

In addition to speeches at Chicago, Indianapolis, St. Louis and Kansas City, previously announced, Johnson will speak at Des Moines, Sioux City and Minneapolis. If the situation in the senate does not make his return to Washington advisable, the senator will then continue to the coast, speaking in Spokane, Seattle, San Francisco and Los Angeles. His first speech will be before the Hamilton Club in Chicago, Wednesday noon. Johnson, Borah and McCormick will then speak at a night meeting.

The senators will not have a special train or a special car for the tour.

Belgian Heroine Escaping Death, To Reside In L. A.

Girl Rescued By Canadian Soldiers Adopted By Y. M. C. A. Worker

NEW YORK, Sept. 8—After braving many dangers and participating in adventures that almost spelled death for her during the war, pretty Marie Louise Gondier of Belgium has arrived in New York. She has been adopted by Mrs. Lita Dowdy, a Y. M. C. A. worker of Los Angeles, and will go to the Pacific Coast city soon.

Miss Gondier is 21 years old. When the Germans invaded Belgium she fled from Brussels with thousands of other refugees but at Ypres she wrecked a German wireless apparatus in an effort to help her country. She was captured by the Germans, given a quick trial and condemned to death.

The girl was placed in the care of a guard of soldiers as the Germans did not wish to stop to execute her. A few hours later the guard was surrounded by a group of Canadian soldiers and Miss Gondier rescued.

She continued in war work and was thus engaged when she met Mrs. Dowdy. The girl's parents and relatives had been killed in the war and Mrs. Dowdy adopted her.

ASSERTS EUROPE IS INDEBTED TO AMERICA

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The first reply from the senate floor to President Wilson's "contemptible quitter" statement came today from Senator Poindexter of Washington. Poindexter, in a speech, declared that England and France were under obligations to this country and the United States was not under obligations to them.

"The president says if we reject the league we would be 'contemptible quitters'," Poindexter said. "What would we be quitting?

"He says we must stay with the game," Poindexter went on. "What is the game and when will the game be finished if it is not finished now?

"He says we won the war for France and England and having done so it would be dishonorable for us to abandon them. How did winning the war for France and England put us under obligations to them or to the rest of Europe?

"Is it not the truth that the services we rendered to Europe put Europe under obligations to us instead of putting us under obligations to Europe?"

ANOTHER GREAT WHEAT CROP NOW FORECAST

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The total 1919 harvest of spring and winter wheat was forecast today at 923,023,000 bushels by the department of agriculture, on the basis of reports to Dec. 1. This is compared with a forecast of 940,000,000 bushels made Aug. 1. The average crop for five years from 1913 to and including 1917 was 791,000,000 bushels.

PRESIDENT IS HEARD BY 5,000 PEOPLE

Declares Monroe Doctrine "Authenticated" by All Big Nations of World

HOLDS COPY OF PACT WHILE MAKING SPEECH

Mention of Senate's Delay Brings Loud Cheers From Big Audience

By HUGH BAILLIE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

AUDITORIUM, OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 8.—Reservations to the peace treaty were argued against today by President Wilson in an address to a crowd estimated at 5,000.

He said there was no need for reservations. The Monroe doctrine is "authenticated" in the treaty by all the great nations of the world, he said, therefore there is no need for a Monroe doctrine reservation.

He wanted to know if those who favor a reservation for quick withdrawal from the league were such "poor patriots" they thought the United States would not fulfill its international obligations.

A reservation to exempt domestic questions from the league of nations would be superfluous, he declared. Domestic matters are not interfered with in the treaty, he said.

There was intense silence as Wilson painstakingly explained the league of nations plan for preventing war by providing a "cooling off" period and a boycott for offending nations.

The president had a copy of the treaty in his hands as he spoke and got a prolonged cheer when he said:

Work of Honest Men

"This is the work of honest men."

Reservations would send the treaty back to the peace conference, he said, and when he asked if the people wanted that, there was a great shouting of "No, no!"

Wilson was loudly cheered when he criticised the senate's delay, saying no man could tell how long that body would take to do anything.

He admitted he "disliked" the Shantung provision of the treaty, but said it would do no good to refuse to ratify the treaty; China would not be aided thereby.

He asked if the people wanted to go to war against Britain, France and Japan to get Shantung for China.

He again reiterated, with regard to his opponents, that they must put up or shut up. This repeated challenge was greeted with cheers.

Wilson asked if it were possible that any little group in America desired to dominate the world by force, to stay out of the league and substitute "sinister pan-Americanism" for "Pan-Germanism."

This Is Hideous

"That is hideous," he cried. Yet, he said, there were intentions that some men in this country do not find such a program "unpalatable."

The covenant of the league of nations is the only guarantee against more war, the president asserted. Without it there will be another world war within a generation, he predicted.

Wilson said he would consider himself recreant to every American wife, mother and sweetheart if this war were ended without a safeguard against future wars. He said he would be "glad to die" that the treaty might be ratified.

A child born with abnormal eyesight or with other abnormal sense does not realize that he is different from other children. To those of an economical turn of mind it is essential that a new lease on the life of their Clothes be taken. A little extra care here and there will add greatly to the longevity of their wearing apparel.

WE DON'T NEED RESERVATIONS, SAYS WILSON

President's Speech Heard By Audience of 5,000 at Omaha

He praised Senator Hitchcock's stand in favor of the treaty and said he would be just as proud to stand with Senator Norris (the Republican senator from Nebraska).

Wilson started speaking at 10:05. He was cheered more than a minute as he rose. People climbed on chairs to yell.

The president said he was talking as the representative of the people of the United States.

Auditorium Is Packed

The auditorium was packed to the roof, many standing in the aisles.

Wilson was dressed in a gray business suit and carried a felt hat. He seemed to take pleasure in explaining the treaty, frequently smiling at murmurs of applause and brief spatters of hand clapping. Mrs. Wilson, in a summer dress, broad brimmed black hat and white veil, listened intently and seemed to look the crowd over with great interest.

Wilson laid emphasis on the statement that the treaty settled "the land titles of Europe," and that this feature of it would prevent racial irritations that lead to war. He said he supposed many of his audience never before heard of that feature, as the opponents of the settlement concentrated their attacks on a few points, ignoring more important ones.

There was cheering and handclapping when the president reiterated that the treaty contained a "magna charta" on labor.

Germany must be treated justly and admitted to the league of nations eventually, he said. This was heard in silence, but when Wilson said Germany must pay for the wrong it did there was a hearty cheer.

Holds Peace Treaty

As the president spoke he held the peace treaty in his hand and occasionally slapped it for emphasis.

Wilson's special train stopped before dawn at Underwood, Iowa, about 30 miles from Omaha. It was placed on a siding there, as the reception committee was not due to meet the president in Omaha until 9 a. m. and it was thought that this time might better be spent in the country than in a railroad yard.

The president was up early. He found his traveling White House standing in a corn field with the houses of Underwood in the distance. Farm noises, crowing of roosters, etc., sounded faintly. "Wilson weather" is the popular phrase on the train. Sunny skies have greeted the president almost everywhere. Each day he receives by telegraph a weather forecast from the government weather bureau in Chicago.

The president came out on the rear platform for a breath of the fresh morning air. The people in Underwood were not aware that the presidential special was so close by and there were no spectators. Shortly afterwards, when word spread that the chief executive was aboard the train standing just outside the town, the early risers began to stroll down the tracks to wish him good morning.

Interested In Audiences

Wilson is keenly interested in the type of audiences he faces. He regarded his Des Moines audience as typically American. The people who ambled over the private car, the Mayflower, this morning seemed to fit the description. They had the look of farmers and many had their own automobiles.

Wilson is in Republican country now, but that has no effect apparently on the warmth of his welcome. Many of the men on the Des Moines reception committee were Republicans. Some of them said they were against Wilson personally, but favored ratification. They said "the cheers are not for Wilson; they are for the league of nations."

Wilson is continuing to make speeches extemporaneously. They never are prepared or given out in advance. Therefore, the official text is delayed until the shorthand notes of the speech are transcribed.

Adhering strictly to schedule, President Wilson's train left Omaha at noon for Sioux Falls, S. D., where he speaks tonight.

PERSHING GIVEN HUGE WELCOME AT HOBOKEN

New Commission Presented to General By Secretary of War Baker

which membership in that great company and sacrifice for that great cause engendered. Your return closes the history of the American expeditionary force. The president had hoped to be here personally to speak in behalf of the nation a word of welcome. In his enforced absence he has directed me to speak it.

"I bid you welcome, gratefully, on behalf of the country you have served and on behalf of the people whose sons you have led. The confidence with which we sent you away you have sacredly kept. Wherever there is a soldier or friend of a soldier, wherever there is a lover of liberty, wherever there is a heart which rejoices at the deliverance of mankind from its hour of peril, you and your great army will be remembered and loved. You return not only to American soil but to the heart of the country. The president has directed me to read you this message:

President's Letter

"My dear Pershing: I am distressed that I cannot greet you in person. It would give the greatest pleasure to grasp your hand and say to you what is in my heart and in the hearts of all true Americans as we hail your return to the home land you have served so gallantly. Notwithstanding my physical absence, may I not, as your commander-in-chief and as spokesman of our fellow countrymen, bid you an affectionate and enthusiastic welcome, a welcome warmed with the ardor of genuine affection and deep admiration?

"You have served the country with fine devotion and admirable efficiency. In a war forever memorable as the world's triumphant protest against injustice and as a vindication of liberty, the liberty of peoples and nations, no finer armies ever set their indomitable strength and unconquerable spirit against the forces of wrong. Their glory is the glory of the nation and it is with a thrill of profound pride that we greet you as their leader and commander.

"The task entrusted to you required all the imagination, all the energy and all the genius of a great commander. From the first you had the complete confidence of the president and secretary of war. This confidence remained unshaken to the end. From the beginning you had all the support the people of the United States could give. You and your great army embodied for them their country and their country's cause.

Worked With Devotion

"They worked with devotion and self sacrifice to sustain and supply you with troops and equipment. Our hearts were overseas with you and our praise for their welfare were constant. Doubtless the confidence and affection of your fellow citizens were an inspiration to you in the hours of preparation and in the hours of battle, as the superb exploits of the army under your command were in turn an inspiration to our national effort.

"You have just come from the sea and from the care of the men of the navy who made the achievement of our arms on land possible and who so gallantly assisted to clear the seas of their lurking peril. Our hearts go out to them, too. It is delightful to see you home again, well and fit for the fatigues you must endure before we are done with our welcome. I speak now only of our personal joy that you are at home again and that we have the opportunity to make you feel the warmth of our affectionate welcome."

Pershing obviously was under the strain of a great emotion when Baker ceased speaking.

Senator Wadsworth and Congressman Mondell then spoke briefly.

William G. McAdoo said: 'We sent you over to do a job and you did it ahead of time. The best part of it is the fact you came back with your hat band the same size as when you went away."

The general grinned at this.

Gets Bouquet and Flag

Mrs. F. H. Swack, representing the governor of Missouri, then presented Pershing with a bouquet and a small American flag. Responding to these greetings, Pershing said:

"If this is to be continued I believe before many days I shall wish, perhaps, that the war continued.

"To say I am happy is wasting words. I am overwhelmed and overcome with emotion when I think of what it really means to all of us. As regards your extremely complimentary words about the part it was my fortune to play, I can only say that what we accomplished and the victor we won was possible only through the united efforts of the nation. The men at the front felt the spirit of the nation behind them and their morale was never shaken. All credit is due to those brave fellows who faced a well-trained, seasoned army with unbounded enthusiasm. I trust those we left behind may receive the respectful attention of a grateful nation and their graves may be fittingly decorated and consecrated so they may ever be a future lesson to all Americans."

THREE DIE IN FIRE ABOARD NEW MEXICO

generated from burning photographic materials, and with water turned into the compartments to extinguish the flames. Trapped in the ice machine room with his two assistants, Engineman Savage remained throughout his terrible ordeal in telephonic communication with the chief engineer.

Died Like Hero

"Speaking without a tremor, he reported from time to time how the water was rising and how they were being slowly strangled by the fumes and smoke.

"Then came the report that the water had reached a height of ten feet, and here, trailing into weakness, the voice of the gallant Savage stopped, and nothing further was heard over the telephone."

The officer of the deck told of heroic but futile efforts to rescue the three men and how the officers and men detailed for this work were themselves overcome by the fumes when at last they opened the red hot water-tight, bulkhead.

These men had to be carried to safety by their comrades.

More than 2000 visitors were on the New Mexico when the fire started.

FARMERS WILL PUSH CAMPAIGN FOR HELP

BLYTHE, Cal., Sept. 8.—Three months after organization of farmers of the Palo Verde Valley to combat an irritating middleman system in the marketing of their crops, this farmers' alliance has purchased a bank, a cotton yard and is said to be contemplating purchase and operation of a cotton gin. Every movement for advancement of this fertile 100,000-acre valley finds a committee appointed by the farmers' organization to insure its success.

The latest move of the organization is to back an advertising campaign to draw 5000 laborers to Palo Verde Valley this fall to harvest this year's record cotton crop. The crop is expected to average a bale to the acre, and pickers will be paid two cents a pound. Experienced pickers gathered from 250 to 500 pounds a day last season, and children under 15 picked 150 pounds daily. It is estimated that 10 per cent of the farmers here made their first payments on their land with money earned picking local cotton.

Palo Verde Valley is located on the Colorado River, on the extreme side of Riverside county, 250 miles from Los Angeles.

Statement on Opening of Schools Made to Parents

By J. A. CRANSTON, City School Superintendent

ATTENTION TO PARENTS—Santa Ana City Schools including all departments from the Kindergarten to the High School inclusive, open Wednesday, September tenth, at 8:40 a. m.

A new law raising the age limit from 15 to 16 provides that all children between the ages of eight and sixteen must attend school for the full time for which the said school is in session. This law includes those who, under sixteen years of age have completed the elementary schools.

The following exemptions should be noted:

1. Children under 16 years of age who reside two or more miles from the schoolhouse by the nearest traveled road may, at the discretion of the county superintendent of schools, be exempted from attendance

2. Children who are in attendance upon private full-time day schools, taught in the English language, provided that said schools offer instruction in the several branches of study required to be taught in the public schools of the state.

3. Children who are being instructed in English in study and recitation for at least three hours per day for 160 days per year by a private tutor, teacher or other person in the several branches of study required to be taught in the public schools of the state. Said instruction must be offered between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m.

4. Children who hold a permit to work or an age and schooling certificate.

A permit to work may be granted only to persons over 14 years of age who have completed the full elementary school course, and an age and schooling certificate may be granted only to persons over 15 years of age who have completed the seventh grade of the elementary school course. Permits to work and age and schooling certificates may be granted only by city or county superintendents of schools, and only on account of those children whose earnings are necessary to enable their parents, guardians or other persons responsible for them to support the children properly upon whose account the permits are given. Said permits and age and schooling certificates may be granted only upon the sworn statement of the parents, guardian or other person responsible for the child, that he is unable to support said child without his earnings.

Had Bilious Attacks

"Some time ago I had indigestion and frequent bilious attacks. I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets and was greatly surprised by the quick benefit I received from a few doses of them. One bottle cured me as I have not had any return of them." writes Mrs. Ella Wright, Chillicothe, Mo. If you have any trouble with your digestion give these tablets a trial. They will do you good.—Adv.

SEEING TRABUCO TO MAP CAMP SANITATION

Engineer With Forest Ranger Visits Canyon Site This Afternoon

This afternoon Ralph Hilcher, state sanitation engineer for this end of the state, is looking over the proposed public camping grounds in Trabuco canyon. He is in company with Forest Ranger J. B. Stephenson of El Toro, who is showing him the location.

Hilcher is to map out from information secured today the arrangements that will be necessary to make the camping grounds thoroughly satisfactory from a sanitation point of view.

The improvement of the road into the canyon will be started soon. The work is to be done by the United States Bureau of Roads, the total cost of $7,000 to be paid half by Orange County and half by the federal forest service.

WILL PLACE TABLET FOR NAT. ROCHESTER

Besides the medal which will be presented tomorrow to the family of Nathaniel Rochester, who made the supreme sacrifice on the Argonne field in France for his country, a memorial tablet will be placed in his honor in the church of the Messiah, where his bright, cheery face was seen so often in the appy days before the great world war called for his services and he went "over there" to do his greatest to make the world safe for democracy.

The birthday of the young hero will come in October and it is hoped to have the tablet ready to be placed on the Sunday nearest that date.

A fund is being raised to purchase the memorial and Miss Helen Phillips is secretary of the committee and will receive any donations from friends of the young soldier or of his family.

Saturday, Oct. 4th, will be known as States' Picnic Day at the Orange County Fair to be held in Huntington Beach. Judge C. W. Warner is in charge of the plans and is working with the Southern California State organizations. Registers and picnic dinner tables and free coffee will be provided for each state society. Everybody is invited to come.

TRAINED NURSE HAS GAINED 22 POUNDS

"Tanlac Is a Perfectly Wonderful Medicine," Says Mrs. Josephine Freeman

Mrs. Josephine Freeman of 647 Towne avenue, Los Angeles, Calif., a graduate nurse who had practiced her profession for seventeen years, recently made the remarkable statement that she has not only been relieved of a case of stomach trouble of ten years' standing by the use of Tanlac, but that she had also gained twenty-two pounds in weight.

When asked if she would be willing for her experience with Tanlac to be published, Mrs. Freeman said:

"Yes, indeed, I feel that I would be doing anyone suffering from stomach trouble and a rundown condition a good turn by getting them to take Tanlac. For ten years I have been having trouble with my stomach. I could not eat anything without suffering intense pains afterwards, and at times I would bloat up so with gas and such pains and pressure around my heart that I would almost faint. I became so nervous that I could hardly get any sleep or rest and got so run down and weak that I could scarcely keep up my work as a nurse. I of course, used all kinds of medicines and did everything possible but could never get more than just a little temporary relief.

"Finally a friend of my husband, who had been relieved of the same trouble by taking Tanlac, advised him to have me try it, and right from the first bottle I began to feel better. My appetite came back, my blood circulation improved wonderfully, and my nerves began to quiet down. I can eat just anything I want now and never have the least pain or trouble afterwards. I sleep soundly every night and, I feel rested and refreshed on getting up in the mornings. When I began taking Tanlac I was weighing only one hundred and thirty pounds and was still losing. But now I tip the scales at one hundred and fifty-two, making an actual gain of twenty-two pounds on four bottles of Tanlac. I just feel so strong and well now that it's a real pleasure for me to recommend the medicine that helped me so much. Tanlac is a perfectly wonderful medicine and I am glad to give credit where it belings."

Hilbert, in Huntington Beach by Rigdon's Pharmacy, in Orange by Dittmer's Mission Pharmacy, in Placentia by A. J. TO OUR SERVICE MEN

The Register today extends its greetings to the service men of Orange county.

We have followed the careers of the soldiers and sailors who went to war from Orange county as closely as it was possible to do. We used every effort possible to keep in touch with them as they went into the camps, on their journey overseas, into the front lines, into the hospitals, into the days following the armistice, and into the lonesome period awaiting orders to start for home, and as they returned to their homes.

We have been proud of the exploits of our soldiers. We have been proud of the spirit with which our men went to war, and proud of the fact that they fretted because they could not get into action.

The Register's memory of war time covers many dramatic events. Great news stories came over the wire. There was the news of battle, the news of the armistice.

But with tomorrow's program before us, it is not those big news events that come to our mind. The big things of the war, as viewed in the march of world events, always seemed a thing apart from what was happening to our own boys, the boys we had known, the boys whose folks we had known, the boys who had gone from our own county. Those big things failed to make upon any of us the same kind of a deep impression that was made by the arrival of news that brought the war close to us.

We shall never forget the day when the wires brought to the Register the word that George G. Christenson of Tustin had died of wounds received in action. His name was posted as the first Orange county man to die as the result of battle. From the Register the first word of his death went to George's home at Tustin.

The list of dead grew rapidly. The names of Otto Rozell and Donald Trapp, both of whom fought with George Christenson at Chateau Thierry, and Stamey Elliott, and others were added. Then came the news that Jay Gray, whose splendid letters of fighting with the Canadians had been published in the Register, had been killed. The long anxious weeks of uncertainty that came through indefinite word as to the fate of Nat Rochester, Ernest Kellogg and Charles Deaver stand out in our memory.

This county's tributes to the dead have been paid again and again by organizations, in the pulpit and in newspapers, and opportunity to pay other tributes to them shall never be overlooked, and in tomorrow's demonstration the memory of those whose lives were sacrificed shall be first in our thoughts.

Tomorrow, the returned service men will be gathered together. These are the men who have been told individually by parents and other loved ones that they were missed while they were gone. These men doubtless know something of the great anxiety that was felt for them. That their efforts and their willingness to sacrifice are deeply appreciated by the public at large, by all of the people of Orange county, is to be shown tomorrow.

These men are to be shown the great community anxiety felt for them, the great interest that was taken in their welfare, the great joy that is felt at their return, the great desire there is that they shall prosper.

The Register knows that the occasion will be everything that it is planned to be. It adds its word now of appreciation to the men, and its word of congratulation to the committees that have arranged the demonstration.

GENERAL PERSHING

Today General Pershing arrived from overseas, and his arrival is not only a signal for a demonstration in reception of this man who had a difficult job turned over to him and who attended to that job in a thorough manner, but it is also significant in that it practically means the end of war duty overseas.

General Pershing is a plain American. He has the appearance of a soldier, and he is every inch a soldier. Probably if one were to ask General Pershing for the estimate that he would like to have the American people place upon him, he would reply that he would be best pleased were it conceded that he was every inch a soldier.

He went to France upon a difficult mission. Back of him was the confidence and resources and the fighting men of America. He proved to be a man big enough for the job that was assigned to him. He gained the confidence of Allied generals, and in him was found the fighting spirit that prevaded the American army from Pershing at the top to the youngest and most inexperienced private at the bottom. America is proud of General Pershing because he is typical of her fighting men. They, too, went overseas to attend to a particular job, and they, too, did what they had to do in a thorough and efficient manner.

NO-WAR PLEDGE

President Wilson, in his Columbus address, brought the minds of the people to one great reason for America's entrance into the war. He pointed out that the whole country fought the war that wars might end forever.

We all remember with what conviction our orators brought that thought to the uppermost in their Liberty Loan and other war service campaigns. At that time we all recognized that a war that would end wars forever was worth while, if for no other purpose. We were fighting in self-protection against a foe that threatened our existence, who had trampled upon our rights. That was the one big reason, but we were also fighting that no man or power might ever again throw this world into the turmoil of a great war.

Here is what President Wilson said at Columbus:

"I wonder if some of the opponents of the league of nations have forgotten the promises we made our people before we went to that peace table We had taken, by processes of law, the flower of our youth from every countryside, from every household, and we told these mothers and fathers, and sisters and wives and sweethearts, that we were taking those men to fight a war which would end business of that sort, and if we do not end it—if we do not do the best that human concert of action can do to end it, we are of all men the most unfaithful—the most unfaithful to the loving hearts who suffered in this war; the most unfaithful to those whose heads bowed in grief, yet lifted with the feeling that the lad laid down his life for great things, among other things, in order that other lads might not have to do the same thing."

How else is this pledge to be kept excepting by a league of nations? That is a question that opponents of the league cannot answer.

Pre-War Prices

San Bernardino Sun

It is unlikely that we shall ever see the old pre-war levels prevail. Economic experts have been preaching for months that the day of a new price standard is here. Not necessarily are present prices to be this level, but most assuredly those of 1913 will not.

As the government sets out to reduce the cost of living, then, it is futile to contemplate a revival of the 3½-cent sugar, the 58-cent wool or the $8.35 cattle of before the war. Those prices have been doubled and nearly quadrupled, some of them, since that time. It was thirteen years after the Civil War before the pre-war level was reached. The situation today is world-wide, as contrasted with a national problem in those days. Will our problem of returning to the pre-war level be longer delayed? Economists answer emphatically, "Yes!" An investigator for the Department of Labor declares that "The principal cause of the return to the pre-war level (in 1878) was the fact that there was such abundant opportunity for the development of new and more economic methods of production in the shape of new forms of machinery and new kinds of business organizations." These opportunities we do not have at the present day in any measure comparable with the previous period. There are many who do not believe we shall return to our pre-war standard.

What is of paramount importance, then, is that the "vicious circle" be stopped. When the constant mounting of commodity prices is stemmed, then readjustment will be a simple matter. It is probable that immediate recessions will point the way to stability. And when stability is reached, most of our problems will be solved.

To Honor Pilgrims

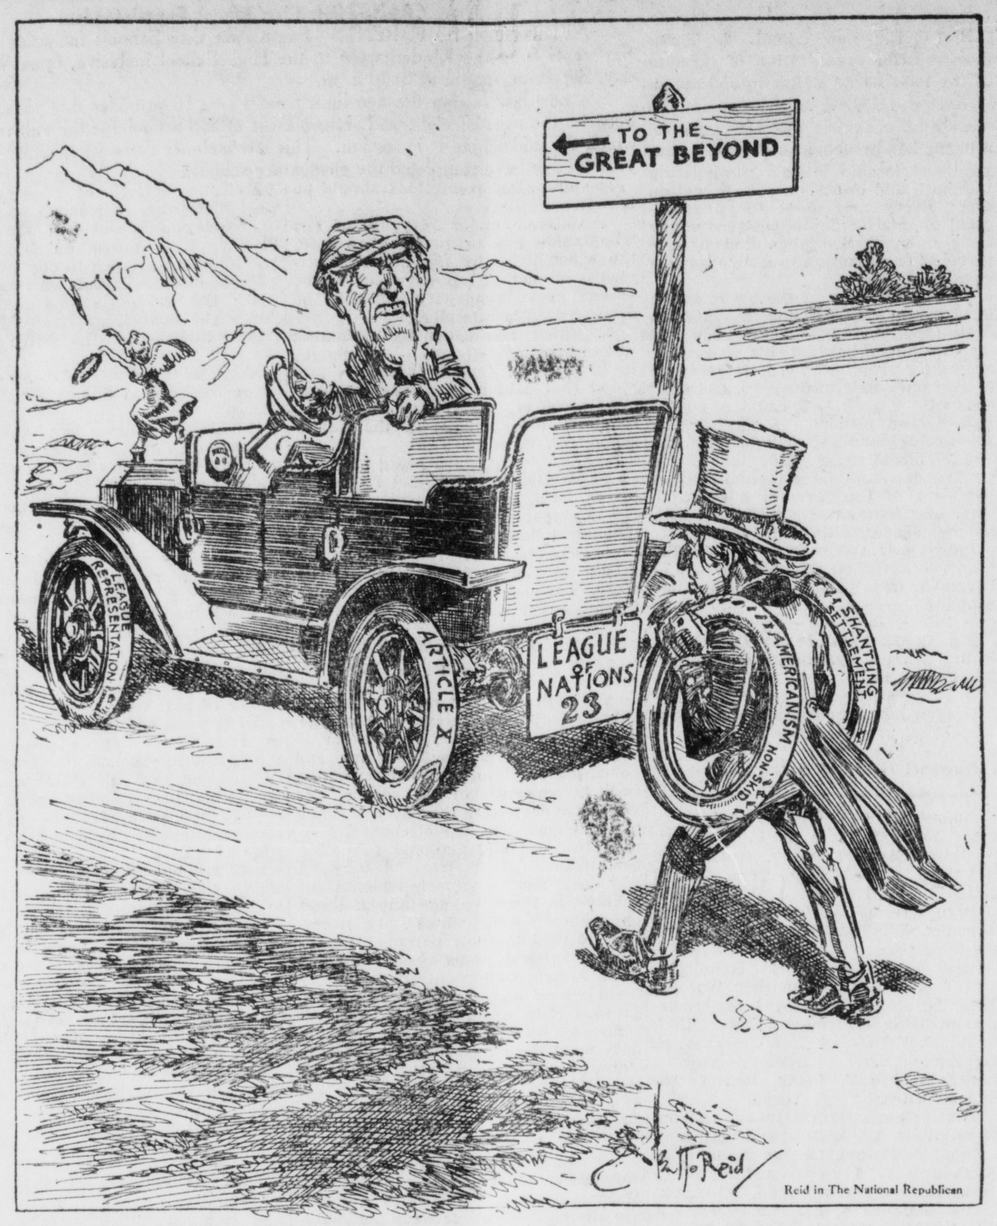

London Telegraph

Behind the efforts of those who are seeking to link Great Britain and America in a lasting union of friendship two historic episodes stand out in bold relief.

It is also precisely 300 years since the Pilgrim Fathers set sail from Plymouth in the Mayflower to make, on an undeveloped continent, a brave experiment in self-government. The actual tercentenary falls next year, and already preparations are in progress to celebrate the occasion in this country in a fitting manner.

By way of contrast to that great adventure one thinks of that other pilgrimage last year, when 2,000,000 heroic soldiers left their homes in America to speed across the Atlantic to the rescue of the old country. They came actuated by that love of liberty which had been handed down to them from the ancient Pilgrims, and with their British brothers they testified on the battlefield to the essential unity of the Anglo-Saxon stock. It is now for Great Britain and America to determine that the friendship which their gallant soldiers cemented with their blood shall be a permanent inspiration in their international relations.

Community Service Today

We learned many things during the war. Not all of those lessons taught in our bitter experience, however, can be made as useful a force in this reconstruction period as can Community Service, born of the benefits derived from the War Camp Community Service and carried with advantage to all into these piping hot times of peace.

At first breath mention of this term—Community Service—brings to mind a coterie of well-meaning sociologists of the kind who tried hard in the first days of the war to "do something" without really knowing what they wanted to do or how to do it, with the result that their well-intentioned, but rather haphazard, methods generally resulted in more harm than good. Community Service, however, like much of our war work, has been made a practical application of sound theories.

No fanciful theory this, that our country should be made "a good place for all of us to live in." Everybody agrees that this should be so, and some try, but with little faith in their fellow human beings to make this true. But Community Service today can be made just as fine and simple a thing as it was in the days when Johnny was marching to war. It was friendly and not patronizing, it afforded opportunities for the soldiers and sailors to enjoy themselves without being surrounded by all those straight backed influences which tend to annoy and end by demoralizing the man whom it is sought to help.

The Community Service which a splendid and representative body of our citizens, drawn from every creed and race, is setting out to plant firmly in the consciousness of the country carries an extensive program. The Americanization of the foreign-born will be one great concern, social and recreational problems in many fields which may be undertaken without duplicating others' work will be met, and, in effect, an attempt will be made to do for the country as a whole what the service did for the men in uniform, making them more satisfied with life. And if ever there was a time when something should be done, aside from settling the great economical questions of the day, to make man, woman and child more satisfied with his or her lot that day is today.

Worth While Verses

THE QUITTER

When you're lost in the wild, and you're scared as a child,
And Death looks you bang in the eye,
And you're sore as a boil, it's according to Hoyle
To cock your revolver and—die.
But the Code of a Man says: "Fight all you can,"
And self-dissolution is barred.
In hunger and woe, oh, it's easy to blow—
It's the hell-served-for-breakfast that's hard.

"You're sick of the game!" Well, now, that's a shame.
You're young and you're brave and you're bright.
"You've had a raw deal!" I know—but don't squeal,
Buck up, do your damnedest, and fight.
It's the plugging away that will win you the day,
So, don't be a piker, old pard!
Just draw on your grit; it's so easy to quit:
It's the keeping-your-chin-up that's hard.

It's easy to cry that you're beaten—and die;
It's easy to crawfish and crawl;
But to fight and to fight when hope's out of sight—
Why, that's the best game of them all!
And though you come out of each gruelling bout,
All broken and beaten and scarred,
Just have one more try—it's dead easy to die,
It's the keeping-on-living that's hard.

OBSERVATIONS

It begins to look as if, after a few more million words on the subject, that peace treaty will be ratified.

GIRLS! USE LEMONS FOR SUNBURN, TAN

Try it! Make this lemon lotion to whiten your tanned or freckled skin.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion whitener, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands and see how quickly the freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

GOVERNMENT WORKERS HOLDING CONVENTION

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Plans for uniting the yet unorganized government workers, and consideration of various projects for bettering the conditions of Uncle Sam's hired men and women, will be discussed by the third annual convention of the National Federation of Federal Employes, which opened here today. The organization comprises a membership o fnearly 60,000.

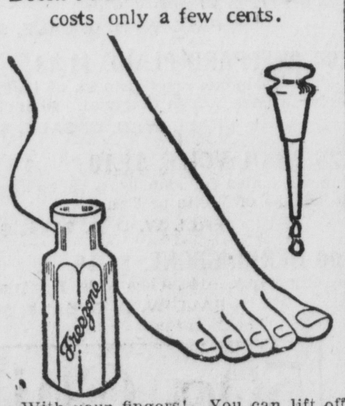

The status of the returned service men in civil service and other federal positions will also be discussed, and some practical suggestions are expected to result from the discussions.

In addition to employes of the departmental offices at Washington, the federation's membership includes customs, internal revenue, immigration, lighthouse service, Indian, forestry, navy yard and practically all other branches of government service. There are 142 locals in forty-two states.

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!

The remainder of the evening was spent in contest games and the old-time amusement of trying your luck in the fish pond.

The sum of $47 was netted from the evening's entertainment.

Shower-Hunt

One of the most delightful affairs of the season took place Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Brown in Tustin. The occasion was in the nature of a miscellaneous shower for Miss Flossie Zerman, whose coming marriage to Alexander Winter of Utah was announced by her mother, Mrs. A. N. Zerman, a week or so ago.

Mrs. Brown, who was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Chas. Schenck, and sister, Mrs. Hubert Schenck, and Miss Doris Schenck, received the guests in her attractive home beautifully decorated with bright autumn flowers, sunflowers, dahlias and golden glow with yellow spotted butterflies hovering among them.

And in the midst of this reflected sunshine, someone suggested that it really looked like rain and promptly produced a protecting Japanese parasol, which Miss Zerman was requested to raise, and falling from each point were small folded cards with the gay little butterflies upon them. Opening them, Miss Zerman found they were suggestions thabt she look under the counch and on the floor for something she had not seen before. Then the fun for her friends began as she played a game of "hide-and-seek" with herself and the many pretty and useful things securely hidden in curious places.

Preceding the shower the guests were given paper and pencil with the direction to write all the words they could from the name of the honoree and that of Alexander Winter. Then they were presented with dainty bits of ribbon and silk from which they fashioned sweet scented sachets for the coming bride to tuck away in the many little places, seemingly just made for them.

The autumn colors were dominant also in the refreshments with the cream in butterfly forms and the yellow and white cakes.

Invited to nejoy the hostesses' charming hospitality, to wish Miss Zerman joy and to talk over the coming event were Mmes. Zerman, Roy Osborn, K. E. Morrison, Tom Willets, Jr., C. R. Schenck and Mfs. Hubert Schenck; Misses Eunice Jones, Mary Addie Jones, Ramona Clevenger, Gailene Finley, Doris Wells, Irma Curry, Helen Roberts, Ruth Bevis, Helen Reinhaus, Lela Heil, Sallie Covington, Doris Schenck, Josie Eilers and Miss Esau.

King's Heralds Elect

The boys and girls of the King's Herald Band of the First Methodist church held an enthusiastic meeting at the home of Justina Palmer on Saturday afternoon.

A fine program was given, consisting of recitations, solos and an exercise in which the girls appeared in real Burmese costumes. There were also real Korean dolls, on exhibition.

It was the annual mite box opening and the annual election of officers. Officers elected were: President, Doris Barnett; vice-president, Ella Armstrong; secretary, Elaine Zellar; corresponding secretary, Iola Baer; treasurer, Athur Olive; mite box secretary, Eleanor Turner; historian, Frances Dunstan.

After the announcement of the generous mite box total, light refreshments were served.

Promise Fulfilled

E. L. Matthews of the Orange County Ignition Works, was called upon to make good his promise yesterday. Some time ago he told his employes that if they could make the sales on batteries reach a certain point by the end of the month he would give them a picnic. No sooner said than done. The sales reached the mark and passed it, far in excess of any one previous month.

The reward was duly theirs, so yesterday the employes and their families were invited to Orange County Park, where they dispensed a picnic dinner, following it with an afternoon of games. There were about forty-five in all present.

The Santa Ana lodge contributes each year to the conduct of the orphans' home and it is hoped a substantial amount will be realized Wednesday evening for the institution. Dancing will begin at 8:30, with music by Mrs. Harris' orchestra.

Golden Wedding Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Stevens of 40 Pepper street, Pasadena, celebrated their golden wedding Saturday, September 6, with a reunion of near relatives and a few old-time friends. At one o'clock a bountiful dinner was served and during the afternoon ice cream and cake was partaken of by a large number of guests, around tables set on the lawn in the shade of the great palm trees which adorn the place. Later hot coffee and light refreshments were served.

Music and conversation passed the time away in the parlors among the ladies, while the gentlemen spent a portion of the time with outdoor games. A number of the relatives had not met for many years and there was much of interest to talk about among the elderly guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens were married in Clinton, Ia., in the year 1869 and have resided in Los Angeles county since coming to California during the early years of their married life. Of a family of four children—three sons and a daughter—only the daughter, Mrs. Edna Banbury, formerly of Pasadena, is living to comfort the parents in their declining years. Mrs. Banbury, who now resides in Modesto with her husband, Samuel Banbury, and their daughter, Miss Juanita, motored down from their ranch home to attend the golden wedding of her parents.

Among other guests present were Anson Stevens of Eagle Rock, an only brother of the host, and three sisters, Mrs. Affa Wickerd of Murietta, Mrs. Amy Rolfe of Garden Grove and Mrs. Julia A. Garrison of Santa Ana.

The nieces and nephews were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wickerd, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Wickerd, Mrs. May Thorne, all of Murietta; Mrs. Fred Sinclair of Glendale, Mrs. Nettie Beatty and Mrs. Kathryn Harding of Eagle Rock. Also Miss Affa Sinclair of Glendale and Misses Velma Stevens, Lucile Harding, Eagle Rock. Among the guests were Miss Helen Hearst, Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Rowell Thrasher, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Nelson, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Burt Follette and Mrs. Metta Huntsburger, Long Beach; Mrs. George Rolfe, Garden Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens were the recipients of a number of beautiful "golden' gifts, conspicuous among which was a lovely gold pitcher, the gift of Mrs. Banbury and daughter, Miss Catherine.

The wedding cake was a large and beautiful confection of white and gold, the handiwork of a local baker. Another smaller but delicious cake was the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Nelson, a home-made and decorated creation of par excellence.

Messages of congratulation were received from many friends, who were unable to be present. All present expressed their happiness to the participants in the celebration of a day, which comes but once in a life-time to a very few people, and at a late hour the company dispersed wishing the genial host and hostess the pleasure of celebrating a diamond wedding twenty-five years later with the same jolly crowd as guests. Both Mr. and Mrs. Stevens are well preserved, the "bride" especially being very sprightly and youthful looking.

UTAH FOOTBALL TEAM TO PLAY ON COAST

Will Tackle University of Southern California In L. A. Nov. 16

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Sept. 8.—The comeback of collegiate football this season will be marked by an opportunity to really get a line on all football varsities of the West. The University of Utah, in addition to its schedule with the All-Rocky-Mountain conference teams, will also play the University of Idaho here October 25 and the University of Southern California at Los Angeles November 16. By thus playing a member of the strong Northwest conference and a representative California team, the Utahans will be a medium for comparison on which western championship dope can be figured.

Coach Tommy Fitzpatrick will call practice late this month, and a number of old-timers and new aspirants, the former including several all-state and all-Intermountain selections, will be on hand to form what Utah expects will be her strongest eleven in four years.

In addition to the Idaho and Southern California games, Utah will meet Colorado College, Colorado Aggies, Montana Aggies, University of Colorado and the Utah Aggies.

'Round Coast League Bases

Home runs—Middleton, Sacramento; Sheely, Mulvey, Salta Lake.

Sacramento made Portland split yesterday's games, taking the second, 5 to 1. However, the Beavers, by winning the first, 4 to 0, cinched the series, 4 to 2.

Bee errors were responsible for yesterday's Los Angeles victory, 6 to 3, while Bee hits in the second game wrung an 8 to 5 win from Schulz and Pertica.

The Oaks took the morning game, 2 to 0, and with it the series, through Holling's pitching. It rained in the afternoon, so the northerners felt at home and won, 9 to 5.

The Seals, in addition to dumping Arbuckle's men from the percentage lead, won yesterday's first game, 6 to 0, and forced the Tigers to play thirteen innings to win the second, 3 to 2.

TAMBOURINE PASSED FOR GIRL BY EDISON

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The story of how Thomas A. Edison passed the tambourine and collected contributions for the Salvation Army from Henry Ford, John Burroughs and some less prominent folk, was told yesterday at Salvation Army headquarters here.

It happened on the recent vacation trip of the famous men. They were spending a few days in New Hampshire, and happened to be in the office of a hotel in Tilton, N. H., when a Salvation Army parade passed. They were attracted by the singing and went out to attend the meeting.

When they joined the crowd a Salvation lassie was about to pass the tambourine. Mr. Edison gently took it from her hand and took up the collection from the audience. The townspeople knew to whom they were giving their money and were more liberal than usual.

The tambourine was full of coins when the wizard of electricity arrived in front of Ford and Burroughs.

"Why don't you pass your hat now?" said Ford.

"All right, Henry," Edison replied, "if you'll start me off with a good-sized contribution."

Both Ford and Burroughs emptied their pocketbooks then into Mr. Edison's hat. So did Edison himself, and then turned over to the Salvation Army a tambourine and hat full of money.

Never Can Tell Who Will Grab Flag, Asserts Evers

Star Player Says Reds and White Sox May Yet Be Beaten Out

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—Johnny Evers, star of the Cubs and Braves, refuses to believe that the Cincinnati Reds and Chicago White Sox have the pennant cinched. While the Reds and Sox are leading by a good margin and going strong, Johnny says there is still a chance for them to hit the downgrade just when the trailing teams start playing gilt-edged ball.

To prove that he is right in his contention, he cites several situations in league baseball history when conditions were like those of the present.

"You never can tell," quotes Johnny with a grin.

She will appreciate a box of Dragon milk chocolates. They are delicious.

ENDEAVORERS HOLD ENJOYABLE MEETING

VILLA PARK, Sept. 8.—The Christian Endeavor of Villa Park held its regular business meeting at the home of Mrs. A. S. Adams, with a splendid attendance. Mrs. A. M. Jessup led the devotional exercises and then the business of the meeting was taken up. The reports of various committees were heard and approved. Discussion on general affairs followed, and plans were made for the improvement of the society.

After the business session, the social committee took charge of the meeting and the crowd was treated to a fine musical program.

Mrs. Jones sang two selectioss—"Somewhere a Voice is Calling" and "A Little Irish Girl." She was accompanied by Miss Margaret Squires. Miss Marjorie Caldwell gave two piano solos, which were much enjoyed. Miss Marjorie Thomson played and sang two selections. The first was Stephen Foster's last song, "Beautiful Dreamer" and second a little piano talk, "Why," supposed to be a small boy asking his father questions while he is reading the evening paper.

Miss Margaret Squires then gave two piano solos, "To Spring" and "The Butterfly," both by Grieg. Miss Thomson then played "Tam O'Shanter." This concluded the musical part of the evening.

The next was a game. Little women had been cut from paper and a verse written on them with some of the words left out; to fill these spaces the company were to make suitable words from the letters. l v e i. Miss Marjorie Caldwell won the prize, a box of home-made candy. The next game was to name the contents of thirteen little white bags filled with various things used in cooking. Miss Myrtle Ford won the prize, which was also a box of candy.

The crowd then played "My Ship Sails Laden," and while the game was in progress refreshments of cake and candy were served. After playing a few more games the crowd departed for their various homes.

The next meeting will be at the parsonage on the first Friday in October and will be a rally meeting.

SHOCKING MACHINE PROVES SUCCESSFUL

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Sept. 8.—One of the results of American inventive genius which have been demonstrated during the present harvesting season in South Dakota and other great grain growing states to be a success are grain shocking machines, which for the first time were used with success by any considerable number of farmers.

In the cases of enterprising farmers who determined to give the shockers a test, the shockers were attached to their binders, and those who visited fields where the shockers were being utilized report that it was an interesting sight to watch the bundles of grain as they were automatically tossed from the binder and caught by the shocker and placed in position, eight or ten to a shock, bound up and set right way up on the ground, one shock after another, in perfect order. Those who watched the operations of the shockers state that they looked absolutely human in their actions.

Because of the success of the shockers this year it is generally believed that the demand next year will be much greater than the supply. The use of the shockers greatly simplifies the work of harvesting and saves the farmers a great deal of time and the services of large numbers of men who had to be engaged under the old system to do the work of shocking by hand.

Dragon box chocolates are the best confection and are guaranteed.

I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and to take no substitute. 13 DAYS COMING FROM GERMANY TO AMERICA

Corporal Ernest Reuter Made Fast Time on U. S. Transport

News that her son, Ernest Reuter, a member of the Mobile Ordnance Repair Shops of the First Division, had arrived at Hoboken, after a trip of thirteen days from Montabaur, Germany, across Belgium to Brest, France, and the Atlantic, was contained in a letter received today by Mrs. M. Reuter, 909 Grand avenue.

The letter written by Reuter, who is corporal in the ordnance department, says that he landed at Hoboken on September 2. The letter was written at Camp Mills. Garden City, Long Island, on September 3.

"Thirteen days ago I was in Montabaur, Germany," Reuter states in his letter. "We traveled in American box cars through Cologne, Liege, Namur, Mons, Rouen to Brest. We arrived at Camp Pontanezen, Brest, at 3:30 p. m., were bathed and inspected the same afternoon and left for the docks the next morning, sailing at 2 p. m. We made the trip across the water on the U. S. S. Siboney, in eight days, passing nine other transports. We had a fine trip. I was sick only about half a day.

"We were surely given a fine welcome—all the welfare organizations showered us with pie, cake, ice cream and oranges and treated us fine generally.

"This camp has surely changed since I left. In 1917 it was nothing but an open field, covered with tents. now it is covered with nice barracks, paved streets and all modern conveniences.

"According to the latest reports, we have to parade in New York on the tenth. If that is true I won't be home for some time yet.

"I can hardly realize that I am in the United States, it all happened so quickly, but I guess it's true!"

Reuter enlisted on July 7, 1917. He sailed for France on October 18, 1917, and in January of last year was assigned to the mobile repair shops of the First Division, with which organization he remained until the present time.

TOBACCO HABIT DANGEROUS

says Doctor Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins hospital. Thousands of men suffering from fatal diseases would be in perfect health today were it not for the deadly drug of Nicotine. Stop the habit now before it's too late. It's a simple process to rid yourself of the tobacco habit in any form. Just go to any up-to-date drug store and get some Nicotol tablets; take them as directed and lo; the pernicious habit quickly vanishes. Druggists refund the money if they fail. Be sure to read large and interesting announcement by Doctor Connor soon to appear in this paper. It tells of the danger of nicotine poisoning and how to avoid it. In the meantime try Nicotol tablets; you will be surprised at the result.

HIGHER PRICES ON LIMAS SEEN BY CHURCHILL

Head of Big Association Tells of Prospecous Conditions In East

Higher bean prices are predicted by R. L. Churchill, general manager of the California Lima Bean Growers' Association, who is back in Los Angeles today, following a business trip in the East, where he declares he found the country's buying power remarkable and the business outlook decidedly favorable.

Members of the California Lima Bean Growers' Association, an organization having its headquarters in Oxnard, and controlling practically 80 per cent of all the limas and baby beans produced in California, are interested in a statement made by Churchill that because all bean production will be less in all varieties, owing to unfavorable growing conditions this year, the price for this year's crop must necessarily be higher.

Meets Prosperity in East

Churchill met general prosperity in every city he visited, he declared. He pointed out that considerable uneasiness in the business world has been caused by unsettled conditions and labor unrest. However, in spite of this, he said, people everywhere appear to have an abundance of money and are buying what they want regardless of high prices.

Churchill declared the purchasing power of the American public to be "something wonderful."

"In spite of the agitation in favor of an early reduction in the cost of living, big business men in the East doubt that material relief will be secured before another year," Churchill said. "They base their conclusions upon the fact that production costs are still very high, and the demand for practically everything is keen."

Forecasts Lima Yield

Churchill says that the yield of limas will not be more than 35 per cent of last year's enormous production, mainly because not more than one-fourth of the bean growers were able to use water on the crop.

The Ventura county bean crop, he states, is perhaps 66 2-3 per cent of a normal yield. The Santa Barbara crop will turn out a better yield per acre because it was irrigated, but the acreage is limited. In general, the bean crop all over the country this year has been a disappointment, and only the growers who irrigated—particularly the baby lima bean growers of the San Fernando Valley—who had aqueduct water at their disposal, have encouraging prospects from the standpoint of tonnage. In many sections vast areas of beans failed to put out runners and pods and were plowed under for fertilizer.

Sees Big Variation

Mr. Churchill estimated the lima and baby lima yield this season at 675,000 100-pound bags, against 1,720,000 in 1918. The great variation is due in some degree to the fact that not as large an acreage was planted this year as the farmers grew last year when war conditions made bean production particularly attractive. Southern California has 120,000 acres of limas and 22,000 acres of baby limas this season.

The great supply of beans which California found herself in possession of when the armistice was signed has been practically cleaned up by home consumption, and the market is now awaiting shipments from this year's crop. Since April there has been shipped out of this state more lima beans than the entire crop amounted to in 1918, Mr. Churchill declares.

SPEEDING ACTOR IS BLAMED FOR INJURY TO 5

Crash Victims Are Seriously Hurt; A. C. Bowers Has Two Fingers Amputated

George Chesbro, said to be a Los Angeles actor, is out on $500 cash bail today, charged with driving an automobile in a careless and reckless manner, resulting in the automobile crash on the state highway north of the county hospital Saturday afternoon, in which A. C. Bowers and party were injured and which might have proven fatal. Chesbro was arrested Saturday afternoon on complaint of Elmer Bowers and cited to appear before Justice Cox Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. He remained in jail a short time and was released on bail.

Chesbro, it is charged, drove the speeding Packard roadster which collided with the Bowers limousine, and thus caused the five people to be injured.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bowers, their son, Elmer Bowers and wife, and Mrs. Belle Buck, sister of Mrs. Bowers, Sr., were on their way to Anaheim. Near the Katella substation a car approached from the north and the machines were about to pass. Chesebro, it is reported, was going south at a fast rate of speed in rear of the approaching car, and apparently did not see the Bowers machine approaching or else thought to pass between the two cars. Measurements taken after the crash indicate that Chesebro saw the danger of an accident and threw on hi sbrakes, the rear wheels of his car skidding 285 feet before he struck the Bowers machine.

Car Turned Over

The impact of the crash turned the Bowers car upside down at the side of the road, one wheel being ripped off, and the front of the roadster was smashed. Mr. Bowers and members of his party were pinned beneath the upturned car, the top of which was broken. They were soon released by passersby and taken to the county hospital.

A. C. Bowers had the third and fourth fingers of his right hand mashed, probably by a window of the enclosed car as it turned over and the window smashed to. The members were so badly injured that it was found necessary to amputate both fingers at the second joint. Mrs. Bowers, Sr., was probably the most seriously hurt, with injuries to her back and shoulder, and possibly internal injuries. Mrs. Bowers, Jr., and Mrs. Buck were badly shaken up and bruised, and all three ladies were still in bed at the county hospital today. Several X-rays have already been taken in an effort to ascertain the extent of their injuries and whether or not bones were broken, and other X-ray pictures were to be taken today. Elmer Bowers was the least injured member of the party, having sustained cuts about the face, and he and his father were able to be up today.

Alexander Henry Hurt

Captain Alexander Henry, aged 80, long-time resident of Anaheim and veteran of the Crimean war, was injured about the neck and face in a collision at the turn in front of the county hospital just about the same time the Bowers were injured in the crash farther to the north. Henry was going toward Orange when a tuck, headed north, rounded the turn and crased into his car, turning it around. His injuries are not considered serious and he was taken home today.

A very important meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will be held in the church Friday afternoon at 2:30. It will be the last meeting of this wonderful jubilee year. The annual mite box opening will take place and a fine program has been arranged. Several numbers will be given by the King's Heralds Band, one of these being "Living Figures," in which the children appear in Oriental costume. Come and bring all the mite boxes. Light refreshments will be served. The annual election of officers will take place at this meeting.

Attorney S. M. Davis has been elected delegate to represent the church at the Lay Electoral Conference to be held in Santa Barbara, Friday, October 3. Brother Davis will ably represent First Church, and we hope he will be one of the seven laymen elected to represent the Southern California Conference at the General Conference of the church, which will be held at Des Moines next May. J. S. Smart was elected Reserve Delegate.

Sunday School Plans—Great things are coming to the Sunday school. A larger program of education, a strengthening of the faculty of the school, and a most thorough canvass of the constituency of the church are matters of intense interest with the teachers and officers.

We are to have a regular Baraca Class organization. The leaders have in mind a most competent teacher for such a class. Then there is to be a Junior Baraca organized out of the boys who will be graduated from the intermediate department. The larger girls' class to be promoted from this department will be well cared for, both in its teacher and the social life of the church.

Rally Sunday has been fixed for September 28, and promotions will be made and graduating diplomas will be presented at this time, and following this, the efficiency program of the Loyal Sunday School Army plan will be inaugurated. This is a basis of rivalry to provoke classes to good works, rather than a contest. The plan will be in force from October 1 till Easter Sunday, 1920.

OWNER OF BEACH STORE STRUCK, IS TESTIMONY

Deadly Weapon Case May Go to Jury at 4 p. m., This Afternoon

It was expected this afternoon that the case of Harold J. Henry, former soldier, who is accused of assault with a deadly weapon upon P. A. Gonsolus at East Newport on June 22, would go to the jury in Department 1 of the Superior court at about 4 p. m..

The first witness called by the prosecution was Gonsolus, owner of the grocery store at East Newport. His testimony today was substantially the samea s that given by him at Henry's preliminary hearing in the justice court on July 10. He said that Henry struck him on the head with a revolver after he had tried to separate Henry and H. W. Gonsolus.

The second witness called was H. V. Gonsolus, son of P. A. Gonsolus. Testimony given by him at the preliminary hearing was practically repeated by him today.

Other witnesses called were Mrs. Horace Fine, Mrs. George W. Young, J. N. Schwartz and Mrs. Mary Krueger, all of whom testified that they saw the elder Gonsolus struck by Henry.

Defense witnesses were to be called early this afternoon.

Those on the jury are Joel Proctor, William J. Althover, Huntington Beach; Samuel J. Jackson Garden Grove; George P. Campbell, A. B. Tiffany, W. H. Hilyard, A. L. Whiteman, Orange; Waldo L. eihy, Newport; H. B. Wiseman, T. L. Hill, E. E. Cooley, Charles H. Getty, Santa Ana.

AUTO CASE AGAINST WOMAN DISMISSED

Dismissal was entered by Judge Williams in an action brought by the State charging Mrs. Mattie Witt with careless driving. Mrs. Witt was arrested as the result of an accident on North Main street in which two motorcyclists, Walter Meyer and Clarence Hoefer, each had a leg broken. She was tried by a jury in the justice's court, was found guilty and was ordered to pay a fine of $50. Mrs. Witt employed Attorney A. E. Koepsel, and an appeal was taken. The judgment in the superior court set aside the judgment of the justice's court and ordered the dismissal of the case. One point raised in the appeal was that the complaint did not state sufficient facts to constitute a cause of action.

THE JOY OF MOTHERHOOD

Mrs. Phillips Sends an Encouraging Letter to Expectant Mothers.

West Philadelphia, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for five months before my baby was born and it has made me much better in health. I was always very ill when my other children were born, but with this one I had a much easier time. He is a big healthy boy now, three years old, and I believe it was Lydia E. County Boost To Be Given In East By Washington Writer

INFORMATION that Orange county is to be given publicity in a number of eastern publications is contained in a letter received today by the board of supervisors from Guy E. Mitchell, a newspaper man of Washington, D. C. The letter, written at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, is in part as follows:

"I have been the guest of your representative Mr. D. W. McDannald, during a recent trip through a portion of Orange county and have also received from him numerous photographs and a large fund of information concerning your wonderfully fine section of Southern California. I intend to make good use of this material in a number of magazine and newspaper articles which I am preparing for eastern publications.

"I should never have gotten into such close touch with the resources of Orange County had I not met Mr. McDannald. His great fund of information, which appears to cover not only the products of Orange county, but their comparative volume and value alongside those of the state and nation, make Mr. McDannald a delight to a busy newspaper man from a strange part of the country."

S. A. DOCTOR SUED BY S. A. JEWELER

Action for $100 damages growing out of an automobile accident was instituted in the justice court today by Carl G. Strock, well known Santa Ana jeweler, against Dr. J. I. Clark, prominent physician of this city.

In his complaint Strock alleges that on January 26, in order to avoid striking an automobile driven by Clark as the latter was entering a driveway on Bush street, between Sixth and Seventh streets, he had to run his car into the curbing.

Strock's automobile was damaged to the extent of the damages asked, he alleges in his complaint.

Dr. Clark is accused of driving carelessly at the time he entered the driveway.

OCEAN GIVES UP BODY TUSTIN DRUGGIST

Contrary to expectations, the ocean has given up the body of N. G. Walterhouse, Tustin druggist, who was drowned at Newport Beach two weeks ago yesterday, and at which time his son was saved from a like fate by the quick action of fishermen.

The body was found this morning by Tom O. Jay, fisherman at Newport Beach. It was floating about half a mile off shore and a mile and a half up the coast from Newport Beach. Jay operates the Skipjack. The body was towed to the float near the Newport wharf and Coroner Brown notified. The body is badly bloated and mutilated, indicating that it had been exposed to the sun for some time. The body was identified by a ring and the skull cap worn by Walterhouse at the time of the drowning. The body is at Smith and Tuthill's.

Walterhouse was drowned when he and his son George were caught in a tide rip just east of the Newport pier. The point is a particularly dangerous one. Two currents flowing in opposite directions meet, form an eddy and pass to sean in one current. The bodies of two men drowned at the same point in the past have never been recovered and little hope was entertained for the finding of the body of Walterhouse.

His son would undoubtedly have shared a like fate had it not been that fishermen were in a boat near the scene of the drowning at the time. They were summoned by shouts from the pier by people who heard the son call for help. The fishermen immediately went to the assistance of the two, but before they could reach him, the fater disappeared, although he was the nearest to the boat. The son was about exhausted when he was taken into the boat. He had tried to help his father, but they became separated and drifted a short distance apart.

The people of Tustin yesterday joined in special memorial services to Walterhouse. They were held in the auditorium at the school house at 1 p. m. Church services were suspended for the occasion. Walterhouse was popular in business and social circles and the auditorium was packed with friends for the services in his memory.

The auditorium was prettily decorated.

SMITH HOME FULL OF BOOST FOR SANTA ANA

"Santa Ana looks good to me, better than it ever did before. I have been away only two months and I can see that you have been doing things in the city since I left."

This is the expression of Charles F. Smith, this morning. He and his family returned last evening from Richards Landing, Canada, where they passed their summer vacation, and where they own Belle Isle, the island upon which their summer cottage is built. They had a most delightful outing.

"I am glad to get back to Santa Ana," continued the president of the Chamber of Commerce. "I am glad to note that Santa Ana is busy and has been busy in a building way. The city has a great future before it, and one needs but to go away from home for a short time to fully appreciate what we have here.

"Southern California's opportunity is here. Santa Ana's opportunity for growth is here. Conditions in the east are becoming almost unbearable and people are coming to California to make their home. We have no such labor conditions as exist in the east. The cost of living is not so high. Everything is in California's favor, and all we need to do is to get active and put our best foot forward and make every effort to bring this section to the attention of the easterners who are now flocking to the coast by the thousands, and who will come in greater numbers later.

"The next year, in my opinion, will be a big one for Southern California, and Santa Ana and Orange county should increase in population by leaps and bounds if the proper effort is put forth.

"Money, the cheapest thing of today, is plentiful. The easterners have it. They will come to California to look the section over. In coming out I met men who had sold out in the east and were coming to the southland to make their home. I told them of Santa Ana and Orange county and they were interested. Now is the time for every local resident who has a friend or relative in the east to write and ask them to come to Orange county. All should boost for the county. Friends bring friends. Relatives bring relatives. No one living here can doubt the wisdom of a friend or relative in the east changing from the living conditions of the east to those of Santa Ana and southern California. Here living is worth while, even if one cannot make as much money.

"Let's boost for Santa Ana and Orange county. My shoulder is going up against the wheel stronger than ever. My two months' absence has made me more appreciative of Santa Ana, if that were possible, than I have ever been before."

GREAT THRONG WILL GATHER AT PARK TOMORROW WHEN ENTIRE COUNTY PAYS HOMAGE TO HEROES

DESIRE TO SHOW APPRECIATION OF WORK IN WORLD WAR

Association Hopes to Give Service Men Day to Be Remembered

BY R. L. BISBY

The history of the world shows that all development for good has come from the carrying out of an ideal. In the minds of some of the business men of Orange county there was conceived a desire to express to the service men from Orange county the appreciation of the civilian population. The ideal involved was the natural result of the war, the desire on the part of one person to do something for another person.

From this ideal was born the Orange County War Service Recognition Association. The sole object of this has been to give to the boys a day that they shall remember as long as they live, and with the memory of that day give them something that they can pass on to posterity as a souvenir of the occasion when the citizens of Orange county en masse attempted to express to them their appreciation for their work in the world war.

All Will Feel Bigger

All the plans of the committee have been carefully laid to this end, and it is believed that when the electric lights are turned out on the night of September 9th, each and every man, woman and child who has participated in the Welcome Home Celebration, either in person or by the purchase of one of these buttons will feel bigger and better because they have done something for the other fellow.

The Governor of the State of California has made an immense sacrifice in coming to Orange county on that day, but he made the sacrifice willingly and gladly in order that he might have the honor as well as the pleasure of presenting to the service men of Orange county the medal of honor.

So let all of us go out to Orange County Park on the morning of September 9th with the express purpose of radiating and expressing all the good that there is in us in the attempt on that day to make everyone with whom we come in contact as happy as possible.

MAN 68 FINDS MUCH WORK BEING MARRIED

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 8.—Winning consent from thirty parents to marry one woman is the experience of George E. Carnes, 68 years old, who recently was married to Mrs. Anna Waite, 55, a widow. The couple has resided at the Memorial Home for the Aged here for two years and lately Carnes proposed marriage to Mrs. Waite. Under a rule of the institution she was compelled to refer him to the board of directors, composed of thirty members. Carnes communicated with each one separately and gained unanimous consent.

Straight from Poplar Bluff, Mo., comes the story of a wild grape vine growing around a hickory nut tree and producing hickory nuts instead of grapes. This just goes to show that prohibition may drive even a wild grape vine to extremes.

Man Who Gets First Medal Lost His Foot While on Duty

Lieut. Clyde Slater

Lieut. Slater Injured When Pushed Off Train on Trip For Plane

LIEUT. Clyde Slater, who was selected by the executive committee of the Orange County Service Men's Association to have the honor of accepting a medal from Gov. Stephens if Capt. N. M. Holderman could not be here, suffered the loss of a foot while on duty.

He was with the 77th aero squadron and made many flights over the German lines. His misfortune happened while he was en route from the front lines to a back line position to get a plane. A number of army boys were being transported by train on open cars. He was pushed from a car and as he fell he grabbed the side, throwing his foot under the car. The member was badly crushed and had to be amputated.

ASK FOR FINANCES, FLOWERS, TUESDAY

Flowers and money—these are the appeal points today in connection with the celebration at Orange County Park tomorrow. Five aeroplanes will circle over the crowd at the laying of the corner stone and flowers will be dropped from the planes. Everyone who can take a bouquet or a big bunch of flowers is requested to do so. Take them to the park and they will be taken care of.

The executive committee today is not less than $2000 short of funds sufficient to meet the bonafide expenses of the celebration. The people of Orange county have not done their duty as yet. One dollar will buy an association button and it will take about four buttons to pay for one of the medals to be given the men. Are you willing to be one of four to pay for the souvenir that will be given to one of the heroes?

The time is short. Tomorrow is the big day. The bills have been contracted by the executive committee under authority given it at a meeting of representatives of different organizations at Anaheim on Decoration Day.

The committee has worked hard and consistengtly to carry out its instruc-

'WE ARE DEEPLY GRATEFUL FOR HONOR BEING SHOWN US'

Feeling That Recognition Is Due Is Mutual, Says Returned Service Man

BY HERMAN REUTER

The request has been made that I set down my views as to the reasons why the returned service folk, men and women, are deserving of the recognition of Orange county. It is a difficult thing to do, inasmuch as I am one of those who was "over there"—whatever I would write would inevitably savor of "throwing bouquets" at myself.

Therefore, for the purpose of this article, I would like it if the reader were to forget entirely the fact that I was in the service. What little I was able to do I consider of little moment, in comparison with the sacrifices made by others, not alone of Orange county, but of every other section of the country. I would like the reader to regard these views as coming from an entirely disinterested party.

Overworked Word.

The word hero is one that has been sadly overworked from time immemorial. Yet, the young men and women in whose honor the people of the county will assemble at Orange County Park tomorrow are heroes. They do not consider themselves in a heroic light—each simply takes the view that he did his bit. Paradoxically, it is this self-effacement, this simplicity, which makes them all the more heroic.

The service folk who will be present at tomorrow's big gathering will be there not because of any grandiloquent idea that they are getting no more nor less than they deserve, but rather because of the realization that were they not to meet the people of the county in the same spirit in which the county's invitation was given—in a spirit of love and deepest gratitude—then they would be guilty of a serious and irreparable breach of human kindliness.

Many who went across to France were thrown into the devil's cauldron of battle and carnage, often within a few weeks after landing on foreign soil. Others, through the fortunes of war, put in their terms of service in the Services of Supply, in the base or intermediate sections that supplied the combatants with the material of war. Still others, equally as willing to offer their young bodies as sacrifices to the cause of freedom, never got to France. And yet, all of them, no matter where they were stationed, or how long, did more than their share. "They also serve, who only stand and wait." Right here let it be said that the loving mothers and fathers whom the soldiers left waiting with aching hearts throughout the long, black days did as much to win the war as any man or woman who wore a uniform—that is the viewpoint of the returned soldier.

Cites Soldiers' Views.

The soldier who went through Belleau Wood, through St. Mihiel, through the Argonne, or through any of the other campaigns in France will never in his own heart admit that anything that the country could do would repay him for his hardships. Yet the fact remains, to my way of thinking, that there is a debt owing to the service folk. And the people of Orange county believe as I do—that is why the celebration is being held at the County Park. Not that those who have invited the soldiers there believe for one instant that tomorrow will even begin to wipe out the debt of gratitude—far from it. The people of the county know and feel that as long as there is a United States of America, just so long will the debt exist.

The feeling that recognition is due is mutual. Tomorrow the men and women who were in service will be honored, yet each one of them will feel that those who were left behind should be equally honored. Souls were racked during the war. Anguish came to have a new meaning. Hearts bled everywhere, not alone on the field of battle, but in every American home.

Loving Thoughts.

While the soldier tramped along through slush and snow; while he plunged through barbed wire and into the hell of machine gun bullets and bursting shells; while he lay in his billet, or in his fox hole, cold and miserable, yet always borne up by the thought of the loved ones he left behind; while he plodded along day after day in the monotonous work of

Gov. W. D. Stephens Who Will Present Medals to Fighters

What to Do When You Get To County Park Tomorrow

First—Service men and women do not have to wear their uniforms, or do any marching. The committee will appreciate seeing some of the men in uniform.

Second—Service men or women must report immediately upon arrival at the park to the headquarters of the service men. They will then receive their tag for their medals.

Third—Medals for men or women unable to be present will be delivered to identified nearest relatives. The one having authority to receive the medal will immediately upon arrival at the park go to the service men's headquarters where they will receive a tag entitling them to the medal. Those unable to have anyone present to receive the medal for them will get the medal at room No. 233 W. H. Spurgeon building at a later date.

Fourth—Fill the good old lunch basket to the brim with all the food you will need, also cups, plates, knives, forks, etc. The committee will furnish coffee and cream, you the sugar.

Fifth—Lemonade will be dispensed free by the women of the Orange County Red Cross Canteen. Free ice cream cones for the kiddies after lunch.

Sixth—No automobiles will be allowed in the park. Do not be afraid to come because of the crowd, there will be plenty of police protection. Sheriff C. E. Jackson will have charge of the policing. Traffic to the park will be over the old road and returning traffic from the park will be over the El Modena grade.

Our Debt to Service Men

TOMORROW the whole county in forceful manner is to tell the service men of Orange county through a demonstration of large proportions that the people of this county acknowledges its debt to them.

Acknowledgment is a large share of all that can be done. The debt is too big a thing to be paid in any other way than through the depths of patriotic appreciation.

The boys have been coming home, singly, in two and threes and in groups. They went away not knowing whether or not they would return. They went away willing to suffer, willing to give up not only weeks, months and years of their lives to the great cause but if need be to die.

Perhaps in coming home they have not had the welcome they ought to have had. Perhaps they have not understood the impossibility of meeting each of them and telling him face to face for this whole county just how glad everyone is that he has returned, just how deeply grateful we all are for his service to his country. Perhaps he has not felt the warmth of community welcome as we would all like him to have felt it. If so, it is our hope that tomorrow's gathering will bring to him an understanding of our real attitude, an understanding that for him the fires of community love have been kept burning.

All of these men have had some appreciable portion of their lives given over to their country.

Many of these men have suffered. Many have gone through the hardships of camp life. Others risked the submarine. Many, many have gone through sleepless nights in the mud of France while shrieking shells sought to snuff out their lives. Some went four, five, six and a few even eight days without food, sleep or shelter. Untold suffering has come to some of them, and not one but who was anxious to get to the front where he, too, might be in the thick of it. In that great American spirit we have taken pride, and because our Orange county men were possessed of it to an unusual degree we are doubly proud.

And some of them rest today where poppies bloom in the fields of France, where row on row lie the dead. A cross marks each of those graves over there; over here, in our own hearts there is a glorious memory for them. Whatever else tomorrow's demonstration may do, for those boys who have not returned and who can never return to us, our prayer shall be that those who

GOVERNOR WILL GIVE HANDSOME MEDALS TO SERVICE MEN, WOMEN

Tomorrow will be a proud day for mothers, fathers, wives and sweethearts of Orange county's heroes, as well as the heroes themselves, for all of Orange county will join at Orange county park, in paying homage to the men who went forth to battle Hunism and preserve the ideals of the institutions upon which the American nation is founded.

The ideals of America have been spread throughout the world and give recognition and positions such as they never had attained before—and this through the actions of the thousands of representatives of the manhood of America who exemplified the traits of America on the battlefield and in the homes of the foreigners whose hospitality they accepted while on their mission overseas.

It will be with proud hearts that the people of Orange county will assemble tomorrow to offer co-operative evidence that the heroism of the county men and women is fully appreciated by them. As a token of this esteem each service man and woman present will be presented with a handsome medal, emblematic of Orange county, while each of those who is not in attendance will be the recipient of one either by mail from the executive committee or through relatives.

It will be Wm. D. Stephens, the governor of the great state of California who will present the medals and his remarks accompanying the presentation will be such as to make the heroes proud that they had the honor of representing the great national government in its plans to defeat the war lords of Germany in their efforts to dominate the whole world, and proud that they are permitted to be present at the exercises.

The Supreme Sacrifice

There will be mothers and fathers and other relatives at the park of men who made the supreme sacrifice. Their hearts will be heavy that their dear ones are not present to receive the personal congratulations of their home people, and yet proud that the deceased relative was a true American and loved his country better than his life.

There will be vacant places in a number of the family gatherings that will assemble under the pretty live-oaks of the county playgrounds to pay homage to the men who went through hell on the various fronts, and who have returned to enjoy the fruits of an honorable and just victory.

The day will be one essentially for the men who endured the hardships overseas and in cantonments, who surrendered their civil occupations to become scholars in the art of warfare—in scientific killing, as it were. The men will be called upon to do nothing but enjoy themselves.

Earnest workers, representatives of every district in the county, will be there to answer to their beck and call—there to entertain them and see that they have a good time. Only once during the entire day will the men and women—and there are a number of girls who went from here as Red Cross nurses—be made prominent and that will be for a few moments only when they are assembled to receive their medals.

Relatives Late in Reporting

The rush today at the office of R. L. Bisby of last minute reports of men whose names have not been reported, indicates that many relatives have failed to take heed of the appeals that have been sent out for the names and addresses of men who are entitled to the medal.

In view of this fact, it has been arranged that any man or the relative of any man whose name has not thus far been reported in, may report at the booth at the park and receive one of the medals. A fine point developed this morning, when a resident of Garden Grove called at the office and wanted to know if his son who is now in Siberia with the regular army, and who joined before the war, was entitled to a souvenir.

The souvenir was planned only for the men who went into the service after war was declared, and members of the regular army prior to the declaration of war, were not provided for. Should it be that medals are left after all have been supplied who are entitled to them under the original plans, regular army men may be given one.

A memorial arch at the entrance to the park will ever perpetuate the memory of the day and the "welcome home" to the service men. The arch is to be erected by the Board of Su-

BOYS BADLY INJURED AS BEE STINGS PONY

STAMFORD, Conn., Sept. 8.—One of the dangers of country life was brought home to the two young sons of Judge Charles D. Lockwood, former assistant district attorney in New York city, and law partner of Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

A bee stung a pony they were driving near their home in Noroton, and the pony ran away, throwing out the Lockwood boys, Walter and Davenport. All were injured badly.

HOMAGE WILL BE PAID HEROES TOMORROW

Gov. Stephens to Present Handsome Medals to Returned Soldiers

pervisors, and upon a tablet will be inscribed the names of those men whose bodies today occupy graves in foreign lands and in cemeteries in the United States.

In the cornerstone will be inclosed data that will disclose the activities of this day in Orange county to the generation of hundreds, or mayhaps thousands, of years hence should the arch ever be razed and the cornerstone opened. It will contain the list of members of the Orange County War Service Recognition Association who made possible the big day by the purchase of memberships at $1 each, copies of papers of the county published nearest the date, the names of the service men fromthe county, and other data of interest at this time, and particularly concerning the activities of the county in financing the war and in supplying the men with necessities.

25,000 People Expected

It is estimated by those who are in touch with the situation that not less than 25,000 people will be at the park tomorrow. There will be thousands of vehicles on the road. There will be a jam at the park. Every precaution will be taken to guard against accidents and there will be an ambulance, nurses and physicians on the ground to render quick service in case one should meet with misfortune.

To guard against accidents on the road, motorcops will patrol the principal highways leading to the playgrounds. All traffic in well be by way of the two grades through Villa Park, and no one will be permitted to drive his machine out of the procession of cars if the procession is moving at 25 miles an hour. This will eliminate one of the greatest hazards in the big line of cars. Return from the park will be over the El Modena grade. The regulation will prevail up to 5 o'clock in the afternoon, when cars from the park may return over either route. Sheriff Jackson will see that these rules are observed.

Autos will not be permitted to park inside of the grounds. Ample parking space has been provided just outside the fence, and has been arranged so that there will be no tie-up of cars. Streets have been laid out so that machines can be gotten out at any time of the day.

Real Thrilling Address

The real thrilling address of the day from the standpoint of a recital of the actions of the Yanks overseas, will be given by Robert Williams, former resident of Orange, and now living in Los Angeles. Williams is one of the few Americans who were picked from the ranks and made a chaplain. He will deliver the invocation and will give a 20-minute address in the afternoon.

The Santa Ana, Anaheim and Huntington Beach bands will be inattendance, with "Pop" Endicott of Huntington Beach in charge of this feature of the day. Members of the Santa Ana band are requested by Director Frank Harris to be at the band stand at 1 o'clock sharp. Each of the bands will give a concert, with all joining in a program immediately after lunch.

Dancing is considered one of the big features for the soldier boys, and two floors will be in operation from 1 to 10 p. m. A. G. Flagg is chairman of the committee in charge of the dancing and he has selected men from other points in the county to assist him. The new tennis court will be utilized as one of the dance floors.

Governor Stephens and staff will arrive here in the morning about 10 o'clock and will be taken in charge by Mrs. A. J. Lawton and her committee. Special arrangements are being made for honoring the distinguished visitor at the park.

Salvation Army to Help

The Salvation Army will be on the grounds to give the service men who were overseas another touch of the service these devoted people rendered when the fightrs were in camp and on the battle front. The coffee and doughnuts will be free to them, while a small charge will be made to the public. Captain Schute will be assisted in the work by local and Los Angeles lassies.

The Knights of Columbus will remember the boys, also will be on the ground to distribute free smakes and other things that the boys are known to like.

Just a word to the service men: Those whose names have been sent to the headquarters of the executive committee have received or will receive a tag at the booth showing them to be entitled to a medal. Those who have not registered may do so at the park by presenting the necessary credentials and get a tag. The governor will present but one medal in person. That will be given to Lieutenant Clyde Slater. Following the ceremony, the men will receive their medals at the booth, about sixty young women being selected to present them. It will require but a few minutes' time for the ceremony.

All are urged to wear their buttons tomorrow.

SHEEP SHEARERS IN OREGON HIGHLY PAID

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 8.—Twenty to $35 a day are the prevalent wages here now for sheep shearers. This is the statement of Dr. W. Lytle, state veterinarian and secretary of the State Livestock Sanitary Board. Shearers receive 22 cents per head throughout Oregon. One hundred sheep per day is only a fair average for a man to shear. The state record is 207. The shearers are well organized, says Dr. Lytle, and no one not a member of the organization can find that kind of employment.

MEMORY OF BIG EVENT WILL STAY WITH HEROES

Lieut. Chas. Swanner

Service Men Are Intensely Interested In Celebration at Park Tomorrow

BY LIEUT. CHAS. D. SWANNER

There are certain events in a man's life that always stand out in his memory, leaving either a pleasant recollection, or the opposite of that. A few of these events are: the day of graduation from school; the day he was married, or the day that he entered the military service. And without doubt, the "Welcome Home Celebration," to be given by Orange county, through the Orange County War Service Recognition Association, will be stamped upon the memories of the service men, as one of the events holding the most pleasant of recollections.

For the people that are making this gala event possible, for those having served in Uncle Sam's army or navy, during the greatest of wars, are the same people that we can be assured were putting up the "wherewithal" for the bonds that supplied us with food, clothing and ammunition; for the Red Cross that met us at every station along the route; and for the Salvation Army, which will be with us on September 9th, passing out the same brand of doughnuts and coffee that they have the reputation for making. To step up to their booth and ask for "coffee an'" will be like turning back the centuries by several months.

What service man would miss being at the park and seeing friends that he has not seen since he met them "Somewhere in France," and recalling incidents that seemed hardships at the time, but now are remembered only as humorous?

That the service men are intensely interested in the September 9th celebration was shown by the large attendance at the meeting of the Santa Ana Chapter of the Service Men's Association of Orange County, held on September 4th, when the chief topic of the evening was "What Time Shall We be There?" or "Where Can We Get Transportation?" or "Shall We Go In Uniform or Not?"

As for the people of the county who were fortunate, or unfortunate enough not to have been in the service, when again will you have the opportunity to see the array of "veterans" from Orange county at one gathering. Never again! At least not when the people will be honoring them as they are on this occasion, by presenting them with medals of appreciation.

And don't overlook the fact that the service women will also be there in force. Too much praise cannot be paid to the Red Cross nurse, for without them many of those present on September 9th might not be there.

Years may come, but September 9, 1919, will never pass but once, so don't make other arrangements for that date, except to crank up the "flivver" and follow the crowd. All roads lead to Orange County Park!

MEN ARE GRATEFUL FOR HONORS SHOWN

handling stores on the decks at some lonely port; while he drove his truck or his motorcycle; while he slaved at soul-stultifying reports and statistics in some out-of-the-way military office; —while the soldier did these things and thousands of others, there were millions back home whose loving thoughts came to him, not alone in letters, but by means of that strange wireless which can leap across oceans and continents from heart to heart, to bring courage and cheer.

To one who has come back, there is a greater sweetness in America than there ever was before. People have become bound to each other with bonds that had never existed. There is a new spirit in America, and it is this spirit which resulted in the Welcome Home celebration which will be held tomorrow.

The service folk will be honored tomorrow, but there is not a one who does not feel that those who stood waiting are equally deserving of honor.

There are many who should be greatly encouraged to know that stomach troubles can be cured. Mrs. T. E. Hullinger, Mansfield, Ohio, 'was sick for three months with stomach trouble and constipation. She saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and decided to try them. Let her tell it. "The first dose did me more good than all of the medicine I had previously taken and by taking two bottles of the tablets I was positively cured."—Adv.

OUR DEBT TO SERVICE MEN OF ORANGE COUNTY

were dearest and nearest to them on earth shall understand that it is our endeavor to say to them that we are not unmindful of their loss, of their sacrifices, to say to them that our hearts ache, that the deepest channels of sympathy are flowing now and forever for them.

Appriciation is a thing that it always hard to express, even though it be appreciation for a small favor. For expressing an understanding of tremendous sacrifices, such as this war brought to our young men and those young women who, too, went into service, for expressing our appreciation of the wonderful American spirit, words are of no avail. It is hoped that the magnitude of tomorrow's demonstration will come near giving to the soldiers, sailors and nurses and their close relatives a feeling of the unanimity of our love for them, a concrete surging of the tides of our admiration and appreciation. If our message is carried to them, to each and every one of them, the purpose of the great gathering will have been accomplished.

ASK FOR FINANCES, FLOWERS, TUESDAY

tions in the belief that the people would back it up with finances. The committee hasn't fallen down in its work. It has arranged a program on a scale that is unequalled in Orange county. Are the people going to leave the committee financially embarrassed? Think it over, if you have not done your duty. Consult your conscience. Is it clear?

Is it not worth a dollar to you, personally, to have the county join in a "welcome home' 'to the boys? Buy a button and wear it tomorrow. Buttons may be procured at any of the drug stores and banks in Orange county. They will be on sale at the park tomorrow.

Here are the members of the executive committee, the men and women who have had the responsibility of success of the enterprise: R. L. Bisby, Santa Ana, chairman; J. C. Wallace, Santa Ana, secretary; Mrs. A. J. Lawton, Santa Ana; E. E. Jahraus, Laguna Beach; J. F. Ahlborn, Anaheim; E. E. French, Huntington Beach; Major E. J. Marks, Fullerton; F. E. Hallman, Orange.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

PASADENA, Sept. 8.—An agreement has been reached here by practically all the property owners in the block-and-a-half area of Colorado street, which is in the heart of Pasadena's shopping district, to make a concerted movement to widen that main thoroughfare to fourteen feet.

VENTURA, Sept. 8.—The San Marcos ranch, consisting of 47,414 acres in Santa Barbara and Ventura counties, has been purchased by F. W. Mattiessen of Triunfo, son of a wealthy clock manufacturer, and will be used for grazing purposes. The property is located near the Santa Barbara National Forest and extends into Ventura county near the Hot Sulphur Springs. The consideration was $521,537.

BRAWLEY, Sept. 8.—Imperial Valley farmers and growers will plant more vegetables this coming season than ever before in the history of the valley, according to reports received by a local seed store. Arrangements are being made to increase, materially, the acreage on lettuce, peas, beans and other produce, in order to meet the demand that will be made by markets carrying vegetables.

REDLANDS, Sept. 8.—Redlands orange shipments have been very light the past week, due to the freight tie-up, only ten cars going out. This makes a total of 3810 cars for the season, with about 200 cars of Valencias yet to ship. Little of this fruit will go out before October, however. The new crop is doing nicely and the navels are of excellent size now.

LONG BEACH, Sept. 8.—This city's formal "welcome home" to all men and women who were in the war service of the United States is scheduled for Tuesday, Admission Day. The program as arranged will include many features and Mayor William T. Lisenby has issued a proclamation calling upon all residents to observe the occasion in a fitting manner.

REDLANDS, Sept. 8.—The Yucaipa apple packing house started its annual run Saturday and from now until late in December will employ a large number of workers in handling the crop of the valley. Indications point to about 150,000 boxes of fancy packed fruit from the association, in addition to about 80,000 boxes from the Oak Glen section and about 150,000 boxes that will be sold to the local trade, without fancy packing. The growers are assured of excellent returns, the prices offered being the best in several years.

VENTURA, Sept. 8.—The bean crop is far below the average yield, according to reports made after the first threshing in the Los Posas district. Yields in some of the large fields were cut badly by the lack of moisture last winter. The average production of twenty sacks an acre has been reduced to five, ranchers state.

Good, Pure, Substantial Food

In the navy the daily menu for the men and officers was made out by medical experts. I was one of the lucky ones to carry out their instructions.

It is a positive medical fact that highly seasoned foor causes irritation of the stomach and gives you indigestion. Highly seasoned food, costly fixtures, high prices plus long handled names on the menu makes you acquainted with the doctor.

I carry on my business on the Navy Rule—clean quarters, dining room and kitchen. Our meals are cooked in their own juice, hence they possess their natural flavor. Likewise the vegetables.

We submit to you our bill of fare which we change daily.

WHO IS TO RUN FOR CONGRESS NEXT YEAR?

Riverside Paper Says Grapevine Intimates Kettner Is Not Through

The Riverside Press intimates that Congressman William Kettner of San Diego may run for re-election. Leading Democrats in Santa Ana say that they are satisfied that Kettner is not going to run again. He has said so positively to them and to others, and it is understood here that his closest backers in San Diego are not even going to urge him to run for re-election. They say that they recognize that going to congress has been a losing game for Kettner financially, and they are willing to concede that he ought to get busy and make some money for himself if he is to have anything on hand to tide him over old age.

The Riverside Press in discussing politics had a good deal to say yesterday.

"The Los Angeles Times," says the Press, "is authority for the statement that Governor Stephens will not be a candidate for the United States senate next year; and while the Times is not rated very high as a political authority, its report on this matter is confirmed from other sources. The Times did not add, however, that Stephens intends being a candidate for governor in 1922 to succeed himself; but that report comes from those in position of high trust in the administration. The governor figures, according to this report, that he is now serving his first elective term and is entitled to run for a second term. That seems "fair enough" as they say on the stage.

"The candidate of the Times for the senate will evidently be Edwin A. Meserve, who had a tryout in the primaries when Senator Johnson was elected four years ago. Mr. Meserve, however, will have no walkover for the Republican nomination as it is understood that Mayor Rolph is going to be a candidate, while San Diego is grooming Col. Ed Fletcher for the race. Former Congressman Kent is also planning to run as a Wilson Republican, which is certainly an interesting combination. Apparently Senator Phelan will have no opposition in his own party but who the Republican candidate against him will be in view of the list of availables already in the field is very much of a problem.

"A lot of friends of Senator S. C. Evans of Riverside think he would make a strong candidate either for the senate or house but so far Mr. Evans has done nothing more than look wise when the matter is mentioned in his presence.

"The Democrats seem to be taking it for granted that Congressman Kettner has really decided not to run again, and Hugh L. Dickson of San Bernardino, attorney and representative of union labor interests, announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination on Labor Day. He will make support of the Plumb plan for nationalization of the railroads one of the planks in his platform.

"Reports come from San Diego by political grapevine that Kettner may yet decide to run again; if he should, that will dispose of Mr. Dickson and other Democratic aspirants. The officers of the Republican state committee are urging the Republicans to unite on a strong man for congress this time in order to "redeem the district" and put it in line for proper consideration on the tariff matter in case the administration, as they hope, should be Republican. There has been talk of a Republican candidate from San Diego, but none has materialized as yet. R. C. Harbison is said to be willing to be drafted again, and Senator Lyman M. King of Redlands is also talked of. It is doubtful however, if King would be a candidate against Senator Evans, who is generally conceded by the Republican leaders to be the "best bet" of all the men mentioned outside of San Diego.

"Where San Diego county will line up is a problem; the vote on congressman there will not be determined by politics, but by the interests of the harbor of San Diego. Congressman Kettner reuently said that his main aim in congress has been to make San Diego prosperous, and it must be admitted that he has succeeded pretty well. With Camp Kearney, North Island, and Balboa park as assets the city literally "lived off the war," and is making a pretty good living off the army and navy now that the war is over. Work on the great marine base is going ahead and big plans are in the making for a naval base also. It is bread and butter for San Diego to vote for a San Diego man for congress and we may be pretty sure that consideration will be the determining one and not the question of a party label. Just what the rest of the district will do to affect that solidarity remains to be seen. In previous elections, they have done very little."

FATHER, SON, GRANDSON ENLIST AT SAME TIME

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—Leading his son and grandson, both of whom bear his name, Frank Bowers, a fifty-four-year-old resident of Lotus, Eldorado county, stepped into army recruiting headquarters here the other day, where the trio offered themselves for service. They were accepted and assigned to the Quartermaster Corps for service in the Philippines. The eldest Bowers had served in the army in the Philippines before and said he liked it so well that he had decided to re-enlist and take the others along with him. The son is thirty-six and the grandson eighteen.

FORWARD

ORANGE COUNTY is primarily and fundamentally—past, present and future—an agricultural section. Its soil products amount to nearly a Hundred Million Dollars annually.

Thus during these critical days of reconstruction and tremendous business activity, there rests upon Orange County great responsibility, and there is presented to her splendid opportunities.

The energy of the nation now has full play. Business is leaping with bounds; there is so much to be done for those at home, and Orange County must do her full share.

War stripped us down to necessities; swept away our reserve supplies; taxed factory, mine and farm.

Now we must supply not only our customary wants, but we must again store up our normal reserves, as well as meet the current demands of a depleted world.

There must be no paralysis of production; confidence between capital and labor must prevail; constructive co-operation must rule; the world's supplies must be enormously multiplied.

The new American spirit, the spirit of Service, must govern. With this spirit prevalent we take up our huge task with enthusiasm.

We offer our services and facilities and invite your co-operation and support.

Orange County War Service Recognition

Admission Day--

Tuesday, September 9th

To you, our boys—

How different it might have been if the Huns had won. How we would be shaking in fear, and cursing our miserable lot. How we would kick at paying a heavy tribute to foreign invaders. But, thanks, the Allies have been victorious, and though we may have to submit to a higher taxation on luxuries, we are paying them to our own government.

Peace has come to the world, and in a short time, let us hope, the ravages of war will be forgotten. Our country never was more prosperous. Democracy has been saved to the world.

And all of this—every bit of it—is due to your efforts.

May we, the undersigned, take this means of expressing our appreciation for what you have done for us and ours. May your day tomorrow be one of the events to which you will look back happily as the years roll by.
